It is hoped that the popularity of the country will make up for the smallness of this variety in the current pictorial issue.

FALKLAND ISLANDS DEPENDENCIES

We have been fortunate in securing a recently-discovered variety with shifted centre on the 2/- value of the current Queen Elizabeth II set. All the copies we have are used, the cancellation being DECEPTION ISLANDS 11th March 1956. We understand that one sheet only was found with the variety, of this sheet we obtained 43 copies.
